

1. User starts recording and speaks into device's microphone

5. Existing word tiles are adjusted to opacity based on suggested words

2. Audio is transcribed and sent back to AAC Board to show recording

3. Transcribed audio is sent to intelligent contextual model for analysis

4. Similarity scores and highlighted words are sent to backend database